

We are "at war" now to defend our freedoms. A major difference between us and our enemies, is that our people know what is happening in the world. At present, we do not have to depend on what we hear from those in charge. By consolidating the ownership of the media, we will be restricting the number and type of opinions and information we hear and see. This would be a terrible mistake for our country. Please do not allow this to occur.